

This is a survey to probe general public knowledge of health statistics relating to breast cancer. The students in this class are not a very good sample of the general public; you have a lot more knowledge of the subject than most people.

- (a) What's the life-time risk of a woman getting breast cancer?
- (b) What's the risk of getting breast cancer in the next five years?
 - For a 35-year old woman?
 - For a 65-year old woman?
 - For an 80-year old woman?
- (c) How does participating in mammography screening change the risk of getting breast cancer in the next five years ...
 - For the 35-year old woman?
 - For the 65-year old woman?
- (d) How would you define a "high risk" of breast cancer ...
 - For the 35-year old woman?
 - For the 65-year old woman?

This is a survey to probe general public knowledge of health statistics relating to breast cancer. The students in this class are not a very good sample of the general public; you have a lot more knowledge of the subject than most people.

- (a) What's the life-time risk of a woman getting breast cancer?
- (b) What's the risk of getting breast cancer in the next five years?
 - For a 35-year old woman?
 - For a 65-year old woman?
 - For an 80-year old woman?
- (c) How does participating in mammography screening change the risk of getting breast cancer in the next five years ...
 - For the 35-year old woman?
 - For the 65-year old woman?
- (d) How would you define a "high risk" of breast cancer ...
 - For the 35-year old woman?
 - For the 65-year old woman?

- (e) Remaining life expectancy for women at age 65 in the US is as follows:

Year	1940	1950	1960	1970	1980	1990
	14.7	16.2	17.4	18.6	19.1	19.6

How do you think the historical trend toward greater life expectancy would affect the risk of a woman getting breast cancer?

- (f) How old is the woman in this advertisement for nolvadexad/tamaxifen?

- (e) Remaining life expectancy for women at age 65 in the US is as follows:

Year	1940	1950	1960	1970	1980	1990
	14.7	16.2	17.4	18.6	19.1	19.6

How do you think the historical trend toward greater life expectancy would affect the risk of a woman getting breast cancer?

- (f) How old is the woman in this advertisement for nolvadexad/tamaxifen?

