Math 125: Epidemiology

Fright Factors

Mark the applicability of the "fright factor" to the setting as 0, L, M, H, for "none", "low", "medium", "high".

Setting	Involuntary	Inequitably distributed	Inescapable	Unfamiliar	Man-made	Hidden and irreversible	Children, pregnant women	Future generations	Dreadful form of death	Identifiable victims	Contradictory statements
Environmental "toxins" such as
BPA
"Bad foods", e.g. salt, fat,
Alcohol use
Air Travel
Car Travel
Kayaking
Motorcycling
Bicycling
Nuclear radiation exposure
Cigarette smoking
Indoor pollution from wood- burning stoves
Second-hand Smoke
Mountain Climbing											$\square$
Vaccination
Hitchhiking
Fiscal cliff
Fluoridation of water											